

Journaling

Here is where you will record your weekly journaling for the second semester. At the end of 10 weeks, you will have 20 pages of journaling.

Let this journaling help you focus on writing techniques discussed during the year and ways to explore your creativity and writing style.

Possible Topics

- Write about an interesting time in your childhood.
- Write about a time when you were very homesick.
- If you had a choice to live anywhere you could, where would it be?
- Write about the pros/cons of year-round school.
- What would be in your perfect world?
- Favorite movies/actors
- What is your favorite animal?
- After first semester what would you do differently or the same?
- What does your food say about you?
- What is your favorite season and why?
- Where would I go if I could take a trip anywhere?
- What kind of movie would you star in?
- What would you do if you were invisible for a day?
- If you could spend a day with anyone in history, who would it be and why.
- If you could live in another time period, what would it be and why.
- Write about your favorite sport or activity (as a participant or spectator)
- What is it like to be the oldest, middle, youngest?
- If you could invent something to help mankind, what would it be?
- What would be your dream vacation?
- What would you wish for if you had 3 wishes?
- What is your favorite activity to do? (or 3 favorite)
- What are you going to do (or did) for spring break?
- If you could meet any author in history, who would it be, and what would you ask him/her?
- What do you want to be in life?

